LITTLE ONES

Are Made Happy by Salvation Army with Christmas Baskets.

The usual Christmas basket dinner was given by the Salvation Army to the poor of Clarksburg and vicinity, sixty-five well filled baskets, containing chicken and all kinds of good things necessary to supply a sumptuous dinner for each family of the recipients, who received them with thanks. Adjutant George Willis personally investigated all families, weeks before Christmas, and left tickets, so that duplication was unnecessary by other charitable organizations.

The Christmas tree will be given New Year's eve, when a good supply of toys, candy, nuts, etc., will be distributed. A program of songs, recitations and musical selections by the Sunday school children, will be rendered also.

The officers in charge, Adjutant George Willis and Captain Harry Purdum, wish to express their thanks to the kind donors who so willingly gave to make this possible for the worthy poor.

idable force, among which were several thousand Persian insurgents, is reported in an official statement issued Monday by general headquarters. It is declared that the opposing army suffered heavily and was badly broken up under the Russian attack.

The Germans have been active along the Riga-Dvinsk front, according to the statement, using gas in some of their attacks, but were repulsed in all instances. The statement continues:

"In Persia our troops defeated a German-Turkish force, among whom were several thousand Persian gendarmes and others, armed with artillery and machine guns. The enemy lost several of their positions. Many were killed or wounded and the rest fled."

GERMAN STATEMENT OF WAR OPERATIONS

BERLIN, Dec. 27.—Only mining operations along the western front are mentioned in Monday's official statement by German army headquarters. Quiet prevails along the other fronts, according to the statement, which follows:

"A crater made by a French mine explosion in front of our position northeast of Neuville has been occupied by us. An enemy mine explosion on Combrès hill caused little damage. Otherwise there have been no incidents of importance. There is nothing to report from the eastern Balkan theaters of war."

BUCKHANNON FIVE TO PLAY

Reorganized St. Mary's Basketball Five Here Saturday Night.

What promises to be the leading athletic event of the holiday week is the basketball game scheduled to be played at 8 o'clock Saturday night in the St. Mary's gymnasium when the fast St. Mary's club team will meet the Buckhannon Collegians.

The Buckhannon team is composed of members of the Wesleyan college team who are making a tour of the state during the holidays. The following well known basketball stars will be on the Buckhannon team: Heavner, Morrison, Shumaker, Resseger and Hoyt. Three of the above named players are letter men of the Wesleyan team and Resseger was a first string substitute last year and in all probability will make the varsity five this season.

The reorganized St. Mary's club team is one of the fastest teams that ever represented this city. Such well known and popular local players as Bradford, Harvey and Jesse Williams, Red Kersting, Howard Crummitt, Michael McAndrew and Frank Richardson are on the squad and any five picked from the above list will make the Collegians go to win.

The St. Mary's team is practicing every night and will soon be in top condition. A large number of first class team have been scheduled to play here and the basketball fans are assured good games during the coming season.

Correspondent Compiles Items of Interest about Folk of That Community.

BRIDGEPORT, Dec. 27.—A program of much excellence was rendered by the Sunday school of the Simpson Creek Baptist church in observance of Christmas Saturday evening. Those composing the choir were Misses Hazel Teter, Mary Faria, Harriet Lang, Audrey Jarvis, Rebecca Johnson and Isadore Stout and Harold Garrett, Thomas Robinson and Paul Sheets.

Mrs. Watson Johnson and Miss Audrey Jarvis were pianists and Miss Isadore Stout, director.
The omission of the musical concert, "Shiloh," that was to have been rendered by the choir Sunday evening was due to the illness of some of the participants.

"The Search for a King" by DeArmond and Lorenz is the title of a musical cantata that was rendered by the Sunday school of the Bridgeport Baptist church Christmas evening.

The setting was elaborate, the music was of unusual brilliancy and the costumes elegant. The entire cantata was given under the direction of the Rev. Robert Bragg, pastor of the church, with Mrs. Walter Willis, as pianist.

At the back of the rostrum was an improvised wall of Bethlehem with the gate opening onto the platform. Over all was the tower, the most impressive part of the setting. The entire church was artistically decorated with stars and wreaths of evergreen and Christmas festooning.

Numbers were rendered by the choir and Sunday school.

In the first part the wise men come seeking the Savior when they hear the Jewish slaves singing "Where Shall We Find Him?" At last the star is seen, which makes a beautiful tableau effect. The search is begun, the Arabs are met, who sing a song of freedom and pass on after which all sing "Worship the King of Glory."

In the second part the watchmen in the tower appear singing, in response to Hadrian's inquiries. This is a beautiful tableau effect. The Jerusalem girls then appear singing "Hail Beautiful Morning." An unsuccessful quest is continued after which the choir sings "Your God Will Come." Angels then appear after King Herod has betrayed his anger at the prophecy of a new king. The search is resumed and is crowned with a glorious success. The Virgin Mary appears and the primary classes sing "What Shall We Give to Jesus?" A beautiful lullaby, "Angels Guard Thee" is sung by Mrs. Cooley. The gift is brought and the Atonic benediction is spoken by the pastor.
